Kickapoo Cemetery, Charleston Township, Coles County Illinois

Introduction

Photographs of existing markers were taken Oct 2004 and used as the primary source for this record. This document was created from those photos and other sources as noted.

A complete and accurate record is nearly impossible due to human error, and the erosion of time. However, the resulting record is as accurate as we could make it.

The numbering starts at the north west corner of the cemetery. Rows are numbered from west to east and tombstones are numbered from north to south (left to right). Markers were not always placed in a straight row making it difficult to follow. Stones are numbered as found.

Note: It was very difficult to follow the location of markers using the cemetery plat (included). We used the above format making it easier to locate tombstones.

Italicized text is added information with source noted.

Cemetery History and Information

This is an active cemetery.

Cemetery was well mowed and there was no fence. There is off road parking in the Church parking lot.

Grand mother McKenzie formerly owned the school house at the Mt. Zion Church, southeast corner of Charleston Township. The people in the school district, a year or so since voted to build the new school house, nearer Wrihtsville. Old Mrs. McKenzie then gave the acre of land formerly occupied by the school house to the Mt. Zion Separate Baptist church for a burial ground. It was fenced off, but so far but one burial has occurred --- a little girl, the daughter of Andrew Walker. The place is on the hill brow extending from the Embarras to Kickapoo and will be a beautiful cemetery in years to come.

It is north across the point from the high point where Johnny Cake, the Kickapoo, was buried, after he was killed by his wife by mistake. The old story has been often told by the earliest settlers of Charleston township. Johnny cake had a grave fenced up till of recent years, but it is now lost in a corn field.

The Prairie Sleeps, Vol. III, 1994, (Coles County Genealogical Society)

The following is from Kickapoo Cemetery Records which was copied from the original record book.

April 10, 1907 the people of Kickapoo Church and Community met at the church to organize and lay out a grave yard. J. W. King, A. S. Walker and John McKenzie were chosen trustees of said grave yard, the land being donated by Ammanda McKenzie. On the same date and at the same place the trustees organized by electing A. S. Walker, president, J. W. King, treasurer, and John McKenzie, secretary.

Millar McKenzie, Larb Kelly and Charles Adkins were appointed as a committee to solict funds for the purpose of fencing said cemetery. This meeting was held April 13, 1907, John McKenzie, secretary.

On May 13, 1931 the stockholder or lot owners met at 10:00 after being duly notified by notice being given in the Daily Courier and accepted the resignation of John McKenzie as trustee. Willis Bates and Larb Kelly were elected to the board of trustees. Members of the board at this date are: Millar McKenzie, Willis Bates and Larb Kelly. (John McKenzie, sec.)

On Jun 20, 1931, the board of trustees met and elected Larb Kelly, president; Millar McKenzie, treasurer; and Willis Bates, secretary.

After being duly notified in the Daily Courier, the stockholders, or lot owners met on August 28th, 1931 at the Kickapoo Cemetery of the purpose of accepting the resignation of Millar McKenzie and electing John McKenzie to replace him.

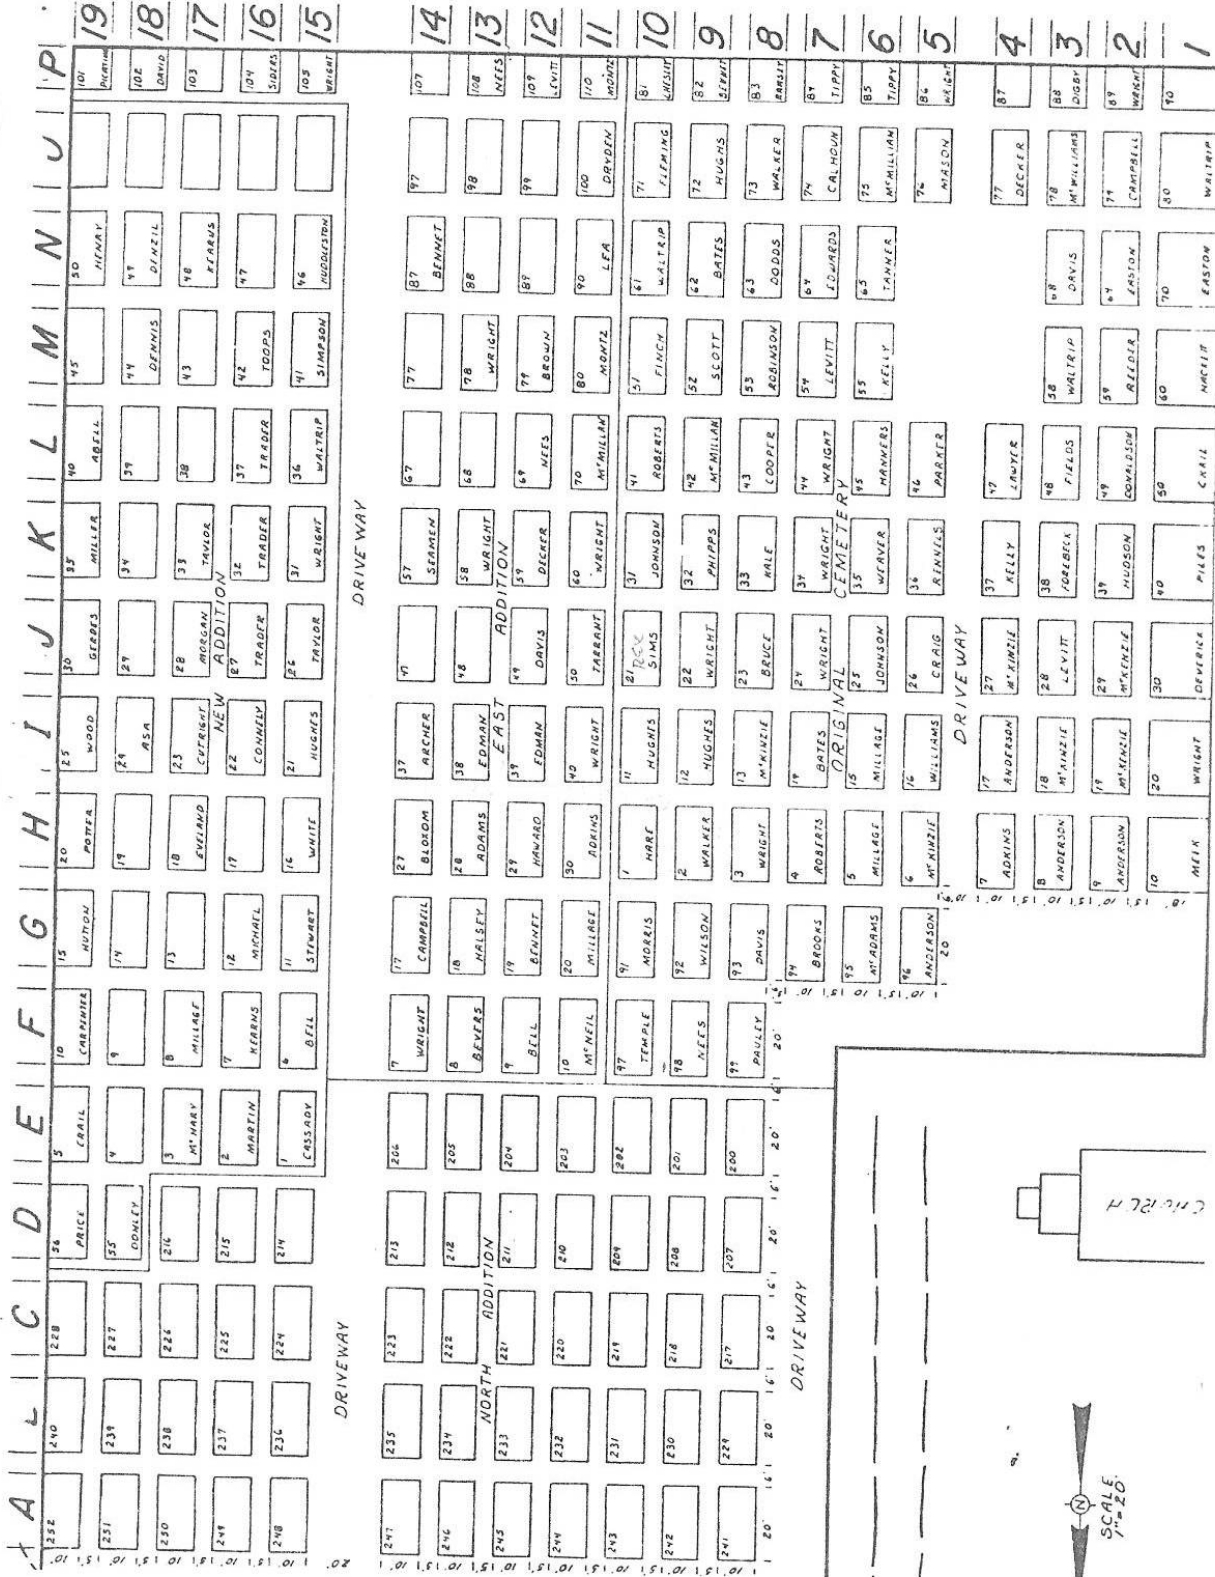

The board of trustees met on August 29, 1931 and elected Larb Kelly, president; Willis Bates, secretary; Willis Bates also treasurer; and John McKenzie as clerk.

On November 21, 1931 the board of trustees met and audited the claim of Willis Bates and Larb Kelly for posts and gravel furnished the cemetery.

This report was made by Lowell D. Waltrip, January 21, 1981 from the original rcord book.
